Company Profile

PH Products

At the heart of PH's story lies a deep commitment to crafting superior quality brass hardware products. In the dynamic realm of global commerce, there emerges a brand that dares to redefine quality, innovation, and sustainability in exceptional hardware solutions. Established as the best choice for customers since 2017.

The PH Heritage

For years, PH has honed its artistry to offer an exquisite range of hardware solutions, elevating the aesthetics and functionality of furniture, doors and windows. The brand's journey is characterized by a dedication to heritage craftsmanship and a vision to provide products that stand the test of time.

Sustainability as a Way of Life

PH understands that the production of exceptional hardware must also reflect a commitment to sustainability. With an unwavering focus on ethical sourcing, responsible manufacturing, and eco-friendly practices.

The Future of PH

PH remains committed to its vision of pioneering humanity forward through superior brass hardware. With a focus on customer satisfaction, environmental responsibility, PH is poised to be a guiding light in an ever-evolving world of doors, windows and furniture fittings.

Exquisite Quality & Innovation Beyond Boundaries

PH Brass takes every possible measure to maintain the highest quality, using raw materials as per ISO standards. Durability, finishing, cost effective rates and quality assurance are the few of the factors that ensure maximum client satisfaction. PH isn't content with traditional standards. The brand's relentless pursuit of innovation has led to the creation of exquisite products that blend seamless functionality with timeless aesthetics.

The hallmark of PH Brass products is its exquisite finishing. Each Handle, Aldrop, Latch, Doom, Stopper, Knocker, Mortise, Bell and Hanger undergoes a process that transforms raw materials into pieces of enduring beauty.

Impeccable Packaging

We understand that the journey of its products doesn't end at the manufacturing stage. That's why the brand places great emphasis on impeccable packaging. Every PH Brass product is packaged with care and consideration, ensuring that it arrives in pristine condition.

Exceptional Services

Beyond the product itself, we take pride in delivering exceptional services to our customers. The brand's commitment to customer satisfaction is reflected in assistance with inquiries to efficient order processing as well as delivery, responsive communication, transparent policies, and dedication to resolving any issues promptly.

In conclusion

PH Brass not only offers superior brass hardware products but it is a promise of superior craftsmanship, timeless design also elevating the entire customer experience through its dedication to exquisite finishing, impeccable packaging, and exceptional services. As we journey forward, let PH be your trusted partner, pioneering humanity towards a future where superior brass hardware products elevates both aesthetics and functionality in your home and surroundings.
